BRYAN WILL NOT RUN?

Philadelphia Paper Claims to Have Authentic Information on Subject.

(LANTIAL TIPE)

CAN'T BE ELECTED, HE THINKS

Says That the Leaders of the Party Are Even More Antagonistic Against Him Than They Were When He Headed the Ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—The Record says today that W. J. Bryan will not be a candidate for the Presidency next year. The information, it says, comes direct from Mr. Bryan to a well known Democrat. Colonel Bryan declares that he will not seek the nomination. Though the people may want him, the leaders of his party are opposed to him.

He says this is his final decision after careful consideration.

The following is the Record article is full:

Friends of William J. Bryan in this city claim to have received letters from him which indicate that he has no thought of being the Democratic nominee for President next year. These letters are declared to intimate very broadly the belief of Mr. Bryan that, without a great change in the attitude of Democratic organization leaders of the country toward him, he would, if nominated for President next year, suffer a repetition of the fate that he met in 1896 and 1800.

Nevertheless, Mr. Bryan evidently does not underestimate the infinence that he will have in the Democratic National Convention, nor does he appear to believe that anybody strenuously opposed by him for the nomination could win in the convention. But Mr. Bryan's recognition of his own unavailability at present, for the nomination, is the basis of expectation by friends with whom he has been in private communication, that he will select a candidate who in his judgment, would make the best possible run if nominated, and will then turn in for him heart and soul.

The substance of the Bryan letters referred to is that in the two campaigns which resulted in his defeat, the rank and file were for him. In his view, the only difference between conditions in those years and the present feeling of the party in relation to his candidate is that the antagonism of "the leaders" against him is stronger than ever before, while the rank and file still stand by him.

In the light of the ample experience which he has had, Mr. Bryan wants to know why he should hope for election most year, if the foremost men of the party would exert themselves even more than they formerly did for the commercation of whatever the rank and file would want to do for him.

But the friends to whom he has written argue that no man can he nominated in the coming Democratic convention against the will of Bryan. He can nake the nominee, win they say. If he shall turn in heartily for "somebody like Governor Johnson, of Minesota," that candidate, in the forecast of these observers, "will not only Stuyvesant Fish Fells John Harahan With Stunning Blow.

WORD "LIAR" CAUSE OF TROUBLE

sented the Term Being Applied to Him-Effort to Cut Out Resolution Condemning Present Management

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—John T. Harahan, of the Illinois Central Railroad, today was speeding toward Chicago, while all Wall Street was wondering if his face showed the marks of blows planted there by the first of Stuyvesant Fish, the former president of the road, during an exciting encounter at the meeting of the directors of the Illinois Central at 11 Broadway.

Accounts of the battle differ somewhat as to detail, but there is a general agreement that Harahan, who was presiding at the meeting, used the word har, and that Mr. Fish planted at least two blows on the face of the man who had supplanted him when he was ousted from the presidency of the road by E. H. Harriman, and was Harahan went to the floor.

Nine directors attended the board meeting. They we've Stuyvesant Fish, Alexander G. Hackstaff Charles, M. Beach, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Wafter Lutgen, John DeWitt Cutting, Charles A. Peabody, Robert Walter Goelet, and President Harahan.

During the proceedings Mr. Fish arose and said he wished to offer a resolution, and began to read it.

The directors did not seem to get the drift of what Mr. Fish was reading for several minutes. Then they discovered that Mr. Fish was putting it up to them to vote for or against a general denunciation of the present management of the Hilmols Central Railroad as "tools" of E. H. Harriman and of Harahan hunself.

Called Him a Liar.

A motion to adjourn was suddenly made and Harahan declared the meeting halourned. Mr. Fish protested against an adjournment, declaring that it was suap judgment, and that the "tools" of Harriman did not dare to listen to him. Harriman 's ai leged to have replied; "The man who says I am a tool of any man is a flar."

gene Cardell, of Cairo, and Deputy Sheriff James Hunnicutt, of Thomas county.

The negro began his career of murder in Grady county Monday night, while resisting arrest at the hands of Sheriff Tylar. He shot the office tead. A posse, headed by Marshal Cardell, pursued Williams and Tuesday night surrounded him in a cabin. The negro, who had barricaded himself in the cabin was ordered to surrender, heing told if he did not do so he would be shot. The negro made no response, but opened fire. The posse prepared to close in on him, headed by Marshal Cardell, and within a few seconds a second shot was fired from the cabin window. This shot ended the life of the marshal.

When they saw their leader fall, the members of the posse ran to his assistance. This gave Williams an opportunity, and, firing as he ran he made his escape. Another posse, headed by Deputy Sheriff Hunnicutt, of Thomas, took up the pursuit and came in sight of Williams yesterday afternoon. says. I am a tool of any man is a liar."

Fish is over six feet tall and weighs 210 pounds. Haraban is almost as tall and weighs 200.

Fish, it is asserted, leaped past the end of the table and struck Haraban in the face twice, sending him to the floor.

The other directors, who had started to leave the room ran back, and as Haraban got to his feet they in terposed. There were more words and then Mr. Fish walked to the elevator. It is alleged he was heard to mutter, "I wish it had been Harriman."

Later Mr. Harahan and his secretary outered an automobile and wen-over to Nassau street, Mr. Harahas wearing his hat well down over his searing his hat well down over his cycs.

It was said that Mr. Harahan's visit in Nassau street was to see a lawyer. With this as a basis Wall street soon circulated a report that he intended to sue Mr. Fish for damages. As soon as he left Nassau street Mr. Harahan went to the Hotel Belmont and packed his grip. The Pennsylvania Raliroad's train soon bore him away toward Chicago.

After the meeting Mr. Fish refused to discuss the affair. He smilled pleassautly and said to could not talk about anything that took place at a board meeting. The other directors also refused to talk for publication. afternoon.

The negro immediately opened fire and killed Deputy Sheriff Hunnicutt, This demoralized the posse, and the negro escaped.

Sheriff Hight, of Thomas county organized another posse, and blood-hounds are again chasing the fugitive. All the members of the posse have sworn to continue the chase until the outlaw is killed. The negro has a repeating rifle and plenty of ammunition. He is fearless and a dead shot, and is said to be a discharged United States soldier.
